

MARA HALUNGA

ABOUT

Mara Halunga is a singer, songwriter, lyricist & percussionist. For her, music is both a way of life and a form of artistic expression, shaped by the different cultures and experiences that have marked her journey.

Born in Bucharest, Romania, she found a second musical home in São Paulo, Brazil. Her artistic project is built around original compositions, bringing together Brazilian music, jazz, world music and Romanian traditions, resulting in a diverse and distinctive sound deeply rooted in the idea of music as a language of encounter.
